Suspect Arrested for Attempted Bank Robbery

On May 11, 2024, at approximately 09:54 a.m., the Aberdeen Police Department responded to the M&T Bank located at 207 W Bel Air Ave. Employees reported that an unknown white male approached the counter and passed a note that read, "I have a weapon; please give me all your money." The suspect fled the bank after the employee informed him they could not access cash.

Thomas Warren Butler, 56, was identified as the suspect. Aberdeen detectives arrested Butler on May 18, 2024, and charged him with attempted armed robbery and attempted robbery. Butler is being held without bond at the Harford County Detention Center.
