Chapter 43 Programs and Services
Section 04 Maryland Safe Haven Program

GO 16-004, 05/02/2016
Original Policy

A. Purpose

1. The purpose of the Maryland Safe Haven Program is to provide for the safe abandonment of unharmed newborns under certain circumstances. In accordance with Courts and Judicial Proceedings, Article 5-641, Annotated Code of Maryland, and the Code of Maryland Regulations (COMAR) 07.02.27.01 et seq., certain persons who leave unharmed newborns with responsible adults are immune from civil and criminal prosecution for the act.
2. Immunity shall apply if the child is an unharmed newborn, and the newborn is left with a responsible adult. If the person leaving the newborn is not the mother, the person shall have the approval of the mother to leave the newborn. Immunity shall also apply to those responsible adults or designated facilities, and their employees, who accept a newborn under the program, for good faith actions related to acceptance of the newborn, unless injury to the newborn is caused by gross negligence or willful and wanton misconduct.

B. Policy

1. The Aberdeen Police Department will comply with the Safe Haven Program.

C. Definitions

1. Designated Facility - a hospital, State police barracks or local police department.
2. Newborn - a child from birth through three (3) days old or through 72 hours old, whichever is greater.
3. Reasonable degree of medical certainty - the necessity and sufficiency of evidence needed to establish the age of the abandoned child.
4. Responsible adult - an individual 18 years old or older who may reasonably be expected to provide proper care to a newborn left in an individual's care.
5. Unharmed - there is no evidence of physical injury or failure to give proper care and attention to a newborn.

D. Procedures

1. When a newborn is brought to a station or installation for the purpose of safe abandonment, the newborn should be taken to a hospital for medical evaluations as soon as reasonably possible. In those instances when an ambulance is unavailable, then the transporting of a newborn to the newest hospital may be made by officers using an infant car seat after receiving approval from a duty officer.
2. The hospital should be requested to determine whether the child is a newborn, with a reasonable degree of medical certainty.
3. The officer processing the incident will:
 - a. Determine whether the person leaving the child is the mother, and if so, whether the mother plans to return for the newborn. If the person leaving the newborn is not the mother:
 - 1) Whether the person has the approval of the mother to leave the newborn, and
 - 2) Whether the person intends to return for the newborn.

4. An IR will be completed. Following is information that should be included:
 - a. Names, unit number and installation, along with times of contact and response of the emergency services personnel that transported the newborn to a hospital.
 - b. Name of hospital newborn is taken to, name/title of person at hospital accepting newborn, name(s) of doctor(s) performing any examinations, and papers/id the hospital provides
 - c. Time of contact with the LDSS, along with the office and the employee's name
 - d. Results of any METERS checks.
 - e. Photograph(s) of newborn
5. All personnel will be aware that, if the person leaving the child appears to meet the criteria for immunity listed in A.2. of this section, and there is an absence of reasonable suspicion that a crime has occurred, the responsible adult surrendering the newborn will be detained.
6. If the mother, or the person leaving the newborn, is willing to provide information on a voluntary basis, additional information for the report may include:
 - a. Details on person leaving newborn such as name, address, phone number, relationship to newborn if any, copies of any id's provided, photographs if possible, vehicle information, etc.
 - b. Any available information on the parent(s) of the newborn.
 - c. Any other information concerning the newborn, such as medical history, hospital of birth, as provided by the responsible adult.
7. If it is later determined that a CIR is needed, the report designation will be changed in the CAD System, and standing Aberdeen City Police procedures for criminal investigations will apply.
8. In the even sworn personnel are approached away from a station or installation by a person wishing to abandon a newborn under the Save Haven Program, an officer will escort the person and newborn to the nearest designated facility. Information should be gathered before the escort if possible. If the person refuses to go to a designated facility, the officer will take possession of the newborn.

 - c. Retired from the Department in good standing as a result of a career ending line-of-duty injury.

B. Definitions

1. Badge - The top line of the badge will contain the rank of the individual at the time of retirement plus the word "Retired." The remainder of the badge will be of regulation design. The individual's name, the year he entered the department, and the year he was retired will be printed on the reverse of the badge.
2. ID Card - A regulation ID card with the word "Retired" will appear on the face of the card.
3. Not in Good Standing - An employee is not in good standing if any of the following conditions exist:
 - a. A sworn employee retires or separates prior to the adjudication of any administrative charges
 - b. A sworn employee fails to return issued equipment, as required by policy
 - c. A sworn employee's service with the Department is terminated.

C. Procedure

1. Badge - On submission of a requisition approved by the Chief of Police, and Quartermaster will issue a badge and identification (ID) case to the retiring police employee.
2. ID Card - On submission of a requisition approved by the Chief of Police, a regulation identification card will be issued to the retired police employee to identify and substantiate the issuance of the badge.
3. Approval - The Chief of Police will review the request, endorsements, and circumstances of the retirement. The final decision on whether to issue the retirement badge and ID card rests with the Chief of Police.
4. Denial - Requests for retirement credentials will be denied if an employee does not retire in good standing.

D. General Requirements

1. The employee is responsible for ensuring all administrative charges and/or issues are adjudicated or resolved prior to separation from the department.
2. Under HR 218, the Law Enforcement Officer Safety Act of 2004 applies to retired sworn employees who meet the law's definition of "qualified retired law enforcement officer".

Section 11 Accreditation Program

GO 21-027, 12/28/2021
Supersedes GO 19-026

A. Policy

1. It is the policy of the Department to maintain internationally accredited status by meeting and exceeding the CALEA (Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Accreditation) accreditation standards.
2. Maintenance of accreditation is a shared responsibility of everyone in the Department.

B. Definitions

1. Accreditation—A certification process in which an agency or institution meets a body of professional standards.
2. CALEA—Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc., the international law enforcement accrediting body.
3. CRLEAA—Chesapeake Region Law Enforcement Accreditation Alliance, a regional group of law enforcement professionals from Maryland, District of Columbia, Northern Virginia and Delaware.
4. Mock Assessment—A stringent, but voluntary, quality control review of an agency by knowledgeable practitioners (Assessors from outside agencies, and accreditation managers of CRLEAA) who act in the role of assessors.
5. Procedure—Directions about how the employee will carry out a requirement or assignment.
6. Proofs of Compliance—Verification by documentation that the agency fully complies with the letter and spirit of an accreditation standard through its policies, procedures, and actions.
7. Site-Based Assessment—The official on-site review of an agency by a team of trained and certified assessors appointed by the CALEA.

C. Accreditation Time Periods

1. The accreditation assessment cycle is four years.
2. Each assessment year begins May 1st and ends April 30th of the following year.

D. The Process of Proving Compliance with CALEA Standards

1. Each CALEA standard requires a procedure.
 - a. The procedure is in the Policies & Procedures Manual, or is demonstrated through regular practice.
2. Records and documentation resulting from following and carrying out procedures are proofs of compliance.

E. Process of Submitting Proofs of Compliance

1. At the beginning of each assessment year, the Accreditation Manager shall distribute a comprehensive list of periodic reports, reviews, and documented activities to the personnel most responsible for those activities.
 - a. The Accreditation Manager shall send regular reminders to affected personnel, to submit required activities, reports, and proofs of compliance.
2. The persons or designees who receive the lists shall, during the assessment year and before the end of each assessment year, submit to the Accreditation Manager every item on the list; or shall allow the Accreditation Manager to obtain the item directly.
