Investigation Leads to Arrest of Man for Robbing a Delivery Driver at Gunpoint

Aberdeen, MD - Detectives arrested a suspect for a past event robbery of a pizza delivery driver that occurred in November of 2023.

The driver arrived at a home in the 900 block of Harlan Ave to make an evening food delivery on November 21, 2023. Residents at the home denied ordering food, so the driver returned to his car to call the contact number for the person who ordered the food. A short time later, a man arrived wearing a mask and dark clothing and robbed the driver at gunpoint of cash and personal belongings.

After a lengthy investigation, detectives were able to identify and charge Tre Kai Ren Golder, 18, of Aberdeen, with armed robbery and multiple handgun violations. Golder is being held without bond at the Harford County Detention Center.
